BOARD SEEKS COMMUNITY INPUT ON SUPERINTENDENT SEARCH

Ellicott City, Maryland—The Howard County Board of Education is seeking public input as it moves forward with the process of selecting a permanent superintendent, who will be appointed to a four-year term to commence on July 1, 2018.

Community members are invited to submit desired leadership characteristics and priorities by completing an online survey. Responses will be collected through 4:30 p.m. on Wednesday, November 22.

The survey responses will be shared with the Board of Education and will inform the superintendent search process.
