Course #	SEduc6812	Wilson Reading Program Training
Description	This workshop is for special educators and reading specialists who will be using the Wilson Reading Program. This workshop is open to teachers elementary through high school. Participants will learn best practices for using this specialized, research-based reading methodology for students in grades 4-12. Additionally, the participants will learn how to pre-assess, implement, and document the use of this multi-sensory decoding and encoding program. Teachers will review how to integrate the Wilson Reading Program within the student's overall reading instruction.
