

Evaluation Summary of RFP: 065.19.B5
 Adaptive Elementary Mathematics Software Solution

Vendor	Pros	Cons	Comments
Curriculum Associates	Develops the conceptual understanding. Balance between instruction and assessment.	Only a promising rating on ESSA  Requirements asked for a strong or moderate rating for ESSA	The ESSA rating must be strong or moderate due to the fact that Title I will be purchasing site licenses for all 13 Title I schools.
Dreambox	ESSA rating is STRONG  Met all requirements. Develops the conceptual understanding of the standards. Focuses on instruction, not assessment.  Good price for sites. Best price for individual.  Provides supports like the other programs for ELL and special ed. However, specifically addresses students with dyslexia .	Does not work with kindle devices.
Imagine Learning	Content and graphics was very good. Did a nice job developing the conceptual understanding.	Only ESSA approved for Imagine Math (3-12). Blueprint (k-2) does not have data or evidence yet for ESSA approval. Cost - very expensive. [REDACTED] site for only grades 3-5 students. [REDACTED] for individual	The ESSA rating must be strong or moderate due to the fact that Title I will be purchasing site licenses for all 13 Title I schools.
Istation		No ESSA Evidence provided. Research	The ESSA rating must be strong or

Vendor	Pros	Cons	Comments
		was not complete. Still in progress. Requirements asked for a strong or moderate rating for ESSA	moderate due to the fact that Title I will be purchasing site licenses for all 13 Title I schools.
McGraw Hill		No ESSA Evidence provided. Requirements asked for a strong or moderate rating for ESSA	The ESSA rating must be strong or moderate due to the fact that Title I will be purchasing site licenses for all 13 Title I schools.
MobyMax	Price for site was the best.	Assessment/ practice heavy  Not interactive  Did not provide individual pricing	