FYI...we have not heard any additional information about the Union drive by protest for this evening during he BOE meeting but will have adequate Security staffing. Plan to funnel the cars into the ARL lot if they turn into the campus. If they get out we will direct them to the area by the road where we have allowed protests in the past. I will be here at CO.

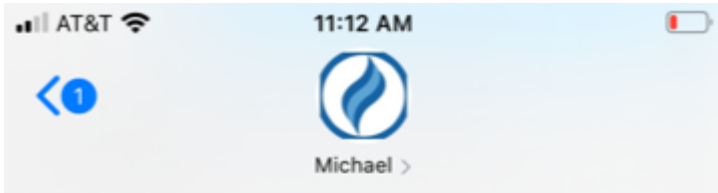

I was going to ask. Thanks for the info

News at Howard HS. Can see them on outside cameras

Had a couple of teachers show up at CO scouting the location. Chuck spoke with them and explained our plan.

Colleen Morris is pretty hot that we plan to block access to the back parking lots. She said she has a speaker system in her car that she was planning to set up next to the BOE room. She says she is going to tell the news that the Board doesn't want to allow their employees at the Board of Education.

Just let them back in the parking lot. That's not a

Ok

It's public property

What time are they due to arrive at CO?

Not sure exactly, sometime after 5 I believe

Trying to get out before they arrive

Good idea

If not we will station someone by your vehicles so it doesn't get messed with

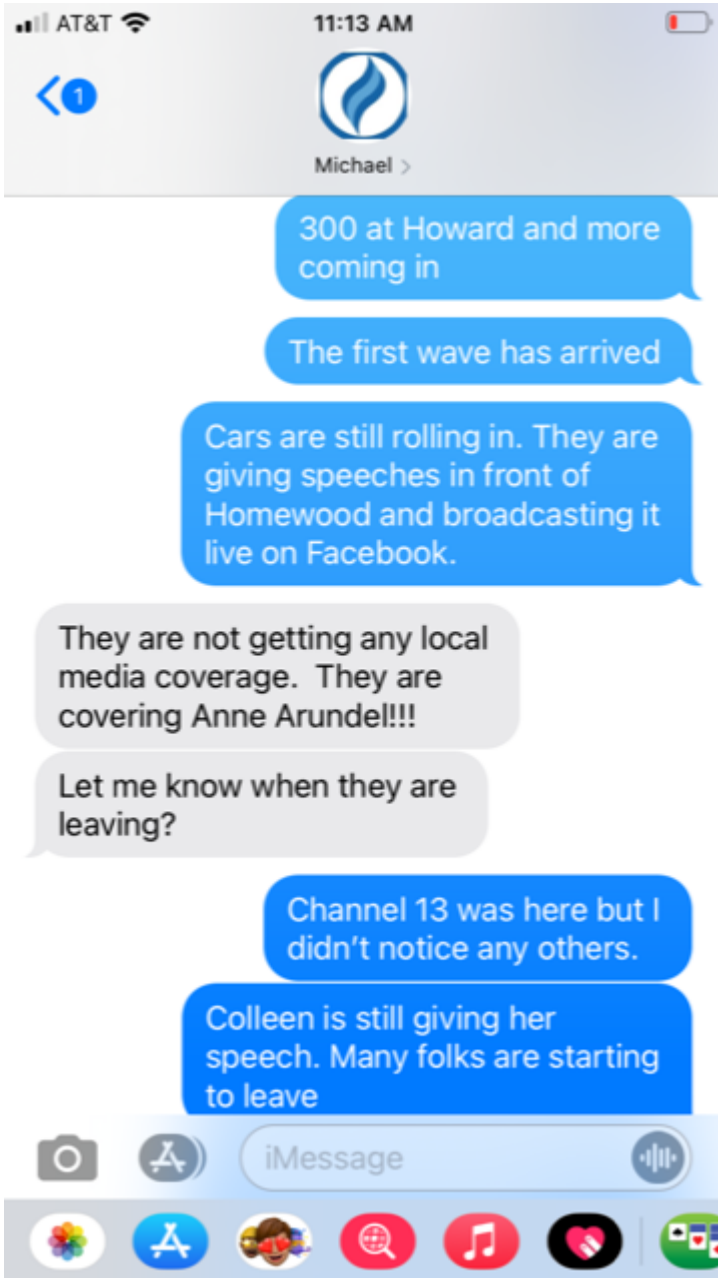

Lots of cars showing up at Howard now

Okay

iMessage

300 at Howard and more coming in

The first wave has arrived

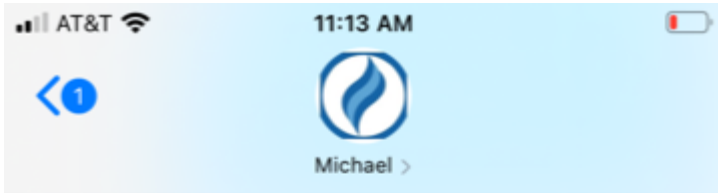

Cars are still rolling in. They are giving speeches in front of Homewood and broadcasting it live on Facebook.

They are not getting any local media coverage. They are covering Anne Arundel!!!

Let me know when they are leaving?

Channel 13 was here but I didn't notice any others.

Colleen is still giving her speech. Many folks are starting to leave

The only issue we have encountered was someone trying to park in the grass and a couple of folks being denied access to the building.

Speeches are complete. The hey will be leaving now.

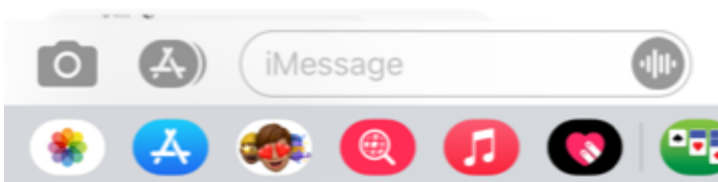

Sounds pretty civil and as expected. Another play out of their playbook.

Everyone has left

Thank you. Now watch the weather

Yes indeed

Shame on HCPSS.

I am truly, and profoundly, disappointed to watch how this has all been unfolding.

I just saw this on Facebook and saw that CV tagged you and thought you should know in case you didn't.

This is not true. I personally authorized that they be allowed to parade around the parking lot.

We never blocked the entrance and changed the plan we had to route the cars into the ARL lot after you said to give them access to the entire lot. Colleen
