

Hi Ms. Cutroneo! My name is [REDACTED] and a candidate for Student Member of the Board. I'm reaching out because I wanted to introduce myself to you, and I was wondering if you'd be willing to help promote the student voice by holding some sort of event with me, whether via a town hall, an Instagram Live, or other format. I'd be happy to speak further by phone if you'd like to learn more about me and my campaign. Following standard procedures, my campaign would, of course, not consider any such event an endorsement.

Hello [REDACTED] congrats on making it this far and for all your service to the hcpss community. I would love to participate but its important for me project neutrality.. I would be amenable to an event that both you and [REDACTED] could participate. Vicky

Thank you! I'll check how my campaign team feels about a joint event.

I know how hard it is to run for office and honestly would not have had the courage when I was 17 or 18... I barely had it at [redacted] but this is my advice to you from lessons learned: dont lose sight of the fact its your campaign, no one else's. Best of luck to you.
