Hi Angie,

Good morning. The debris Jeannie is referencing is not from or has anything to do with the Board of Elections, they are the campaign signs from the political candidates. The political campaigns are required to remove all signs before 8am the morning after the election. Herb Savje and I spoke about this, prior to the election. He is aware that after 8 am this morning, the custodial staff is able to remove the signs and throw them away.

Thank you,
Lisa Lance

Subject: Election Signs / Debris all over Campus This Morning

Importance: High

Good morning Angie, can you please get in touch with the Board of Elections to let them know that this morning our campus was littered with Election materials, signs, stakes and debris all over our campus? Our lead Custodian has been outside for over an hour removing everything.

Hi Lynn,

Good morning. We are currently cleaning up and setting up for this fall...fun, fun, fun. :)

Thank you for your help with trying to collect the election equipment that is at large. We will wait a few more days to see if any other schools reply to your email. Monday or Tuesday, next week we will stop by any schools that have materials to pick up (or drop off - We have an extension cord that belongs to River Hill HS).

Take care,
Lisa

You're welcome. We will be gearing up again in a few months.

Do you want Election direction signs? Elkridge Elementary saved them, and so far, is the only location to email me back.

Hi Lynn,

Good afternoon.

Now that the dust has settled, would it be possible to email the schools that were used in the preliminary election this past spring, to determine if any election items remained at the schools.

Thank you,
Lisa Lance
